

Sue Apple
Administrator
Human Resources Division

Sue Apple was appointed Director of Human Resources in February 2003. She recently was promoted to Administrator of the Human Resources Division. Ms. Apple began her career in state government with the Department of Transportation in December 1975. She came to the Department of Labor and Workforce Development from the Department of Environment and Conservation where she was an Administrative Services Manager. While at TDEC she served on the Re-Engineering Committee for Single Point Entry for the department as well as a member of the Homeland Security Team.

Sue resides in Old Hickory with her husband, Mike, who is the Director of Solid Waste Management with the Department of Environment and Conservation. Sue has one son and two grandchildren.